Preparatory Psalm Verses before the EpistleTone 5

Thou O Lord shall keep us and preserve us from this generation forever. (Ps 11/12:7)

Verse: Save me O Lord, for there is now no saint. (Ps 11/12:1)

EPISTLE READING (for St. John the Baptist)

2 Corinthians 4:6-15

Brethren, it is the God Who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," Who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ. But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, to show that the transcendent power belongs to God and not to us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. While we live we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be manifested in our mortal flesh. So, death is at work in us, but life in you. Since we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, "I believed, and so I spoke," we too believe, and so we speak, knowing that He Who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into His presence. For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

Alleluia Refrain and Psalm verses before the Gospel

Tone 5

Chanter: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

People: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Verse: I will sing of the mercies of the Lord forever; With my mouth I will make known Thy faithfulness to all generations. (Ps 88/89:1)

Verse: For Thou hast said: "Mercy shall be built up forever;
In the heavens shall Thy truth be established." (Ps 88/89:2)

GOSPEL READING— John 9:1-38

At that time, when Jesus was passing, he saw a man blind from his birth. And His disciples asked Him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be made manifest in him. I must work the works of Him who sent Me, while it is day; night comes, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." As He said this, He spat on the ground and made clay of the spittle and anointed the man's eyes with the clay, saying to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" [which means Sent]. So he went and washed and came back seeing. The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar, said, "Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?" Some said, "It is he; others said, "No, but he is like him." He said, "I am the man." They said to him, "Then how were your eyes opened?" He answered, "The man called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Siloam and wash;' so I went and washed and received my sight." They said to him, "Where is He?" He said, "I do not know."

They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. The Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for He does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was a division among them. So they again said to the blind man, "What do you say about Him, since He has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight, and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age, he will speak for himself." His parents said this because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Him to be Christ, he was to be put out of the synagogue. Therefore his parents said, "He is of age, ask him."

So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and said to him, "Give God the praise; we know that this man is a sinner." He answered, "Whether He is a sinner, I do not know; one thing I know, that though I was blind, now I see." They said to him, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?" He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you too want to become His disciples?" And they reviled him, saying, "You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where He comes from." The man answered, "Why, this is a marvel! You do not know where He comes from, and yet He opened my eyes. We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, God listens to him. Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, He could do nothing." They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out.

Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him He said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" He answered, "And who is He, Sir, that I may believe in Him?" Jesus said to him, "You have seen Him, and it is He who speaks to you." He said, "Lord, I believe"; and he worshiped Him.

Communion of the Clergy

Receive the body of Christ. Taste the fountain of immortality.

Communion of the Faithful

Receive the body of Christ. Taste the fountain of immortality. Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Instead of "We have seen the true light," sing "Christ is Risen" ONCE.

Holy Communion

In the Orthodox Church, the Sacrament of Communion is offered only to Orthodox Christians who have humbly prepared to receive through prayer, fasting, and a recent Sacramental Confession.

Non-Orthodox people and those not communing today may approach during Communion for a priestly blessing by saying, "Father, bless." After this you may take a piece of antidoron (blessed bread) offered in the bowls.

If you are interested in joining the One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church, speak with our Pastor about how to become an Orthodox Christian.

WE NEED TO EXPAND OUR EUCHARIST BREAD-BAKING TEAM.

Baking the bread to be used in the Eucharist is a blessing, an honor, and an act of prayer. Would you consider learning how to do it, and joining our parish team? Is this something that your family might do together every few months? We need to recruit AT LEAST 5 more people.

There are a few tricks to the process which are best learned from a veteran Eucharist bread baker. Please let the office know if you are interested in learning to bake Eucharist bread and joining the team. We will schedule a few summer demonstrations and/or pair you with one of our team members to observe them on one of their assigned weeks.

THE GIFTS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

On Pentecost, fifty days after His glorious resurrection, Jesus gave His friends and disciples the promised gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit ~ the treasury of good things and giver of life ~ brought them the life-giving gifts of which the Prophet Isaiah spoke (11:1-3). These gifts were not just for Jesus' friends long ago, Jesus promises these gifts to all who ask. These gifts are for us!

On Pentecost (June 8th) you'll have an opportunity to light a candle as you pray for your gift and will be handed a card with the name of the gift, handmade by one of our LIII children. Please prayerfully consider the one gift you will ask God to bless you with in the coming year:

- Wisdom: knowing the way that pleases God and walking in it.
- Understanding: seeing clearly with spiritual eyes as a result of listening for God's voice with an open heart.
- Counsel: helpful words and wise guidance for others.
- Might: strength and courage to do what's right.
- Knowledge: knowing more and more of God through prayer, God's Word and the beauty of God's Creation.
- Fear of the Lord: living without fear of anyone or anything except the Awesome, Holy, and Almighty God in whom we take joy and refuge.
- Godliness: being devoted to God, to steadfastly love and reverence Him, and to sincerely and diligently obey Him.

"With the descent of the Holy Spirit upon Christ's disciples, the time of salvation, the Divine work of redemption has been completed, the fullness revealed, all gifts bestowed: it belongs to us now to "appropriate" these gifts, to be that which we have become in Christ: participants and citizens of His Kingdom."

- Fr. Alexander Schmemmann

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

On Sunday, June 15th, we will vote for one of the three candidates below.

That person will serve a three-year term.

Fr. Symeon will also appoint one person to a three-year term.

Peter Braun

I grew up in Isla Vista as a part of the community that would become St. Athanasius Orthodox Church. During my time attending St. Athanasius, I have served in Youth and Music ministries. At the present time I serve as a chanter and sing in the choir. For 15 years, (1996 - 2011) I attended St. Anthony Orthodox Church in San Diego, participating in the music ministry and being heavily involved with the physical facilities of the church. At present, I work as a caregiver. I would be honored to serve our parish family on the Parish Council.

Jared Speier

I have been a member of St. Athanasius since birth. I grew up attending St. Nicholas nights and participating in the egg toss and can think of no better community to be part of. I am a partner at Stradling where I practice Labor and Employment law. My practice includes representing companies in litigation as well as advising on compliance with California labor and employment laws. Over the past several years I have had the privilege of participating in several ministries including Camp St. Nicholas and Project Mexico. As a member of the Parish Council I want to ensure that these opportunities are available for all. I would be honored to continue to serve this community as a member of the Parish Council.

Zac Wood

After graduating from George Mason University in 2021 and being received into the Orthodox Faith at the Protection of the Holy Mother of God Orthodox Church in Falls Church, VA, I moved to Santa Barbara for an opportunity furthering my career as a Software Engineer. I have been attending St. Athanasius ever since. I am so grateful to be a part of this community which has truly become my family in Christ. In our parish I been privileged to serve as a chanter during our weekday services, a co-leader of our St. John Maximovitch Young Adult Fellowship, and as a co-leader of one of our Agape Meal teams. It would be a great honor to serve on the Parish Council.
